HANDSOME WESTY HOGAN

Simply Canters to Victory in His First Race of the Year.

Powers' Overconfidence Beats Syosset—Captain Ral Parr Scores a Double.

PIMLICO, Md., May 2.—Wilfrid Viau's speedy horse Westy Hogan, which surprised the turf world two years ago by winning the Bowie Handicap when he was only considered a sprinter, made his first appearance of the year in the Govans Handicap at Pimlico this afternoon, and with only two opposing him merely cantered the three-quarters of a mile in 1:15. Kummer worked him out for a full mile in 1:43⅗. Westy Hogan is the same handsome horse he was last year, and the crowd was quite willing to agree with horsemen that he is the best looking thoroughbred in the country. His rich brown or black coat was so brilliant that one could almost see his picture in it. The son of Dick Finnell and Carrie Jones got a great hand when he went to the post and again when he finished. Trainer McNaughton apparently has this grand horse in fine condition. He was kept close to Ophelia to the stretch, where Kummer sent him along, and he came away easily to win as he pleased. It was really no contest, and Kummer could have gone by Ophelia at any stage of the race. Grundy, the other starter, which was preferred over Ophelia, was not at any time dangerous.

The Pimlico Steeplechase fell to Capt. Ral Parr's Warlock, but it was only by a nose and in the last jump that Warlock won. Syosset, the Greentree Stable's entry, should have won, but Vincent Powers apparently was overconfident. He lay far out of the race; in fact, last but one until approaching the far turn on the last round, where he moved up, and forcing his way through at the last fence he took after Warlock, which had passed Bruin Belle and Melos, the leaders. Syosset closed resolutely, but hung just for an instant, and that beat him. Bruin Belle had been the one to show the way for a mile and three-quarters, and at one stage she was some twenty lengths in the lead, but when she stopped she stopped all over and finally fell at the last jump. Superhuman was right up with the leaders going to the last hedge, but in the run to the finish he broke down so badly that he had to be destroyed. Ocean Prince fell at the first jump and Reeder, his rider, sustained a bruised leg.

Captain Parr made it a double when his two-year-old Paul Jones took the fourth race, while his other entry in the race, Oceanna, finished third. Virginia L., a good-looking filly, by McGee—Sanfara, and sister to Kewessa, separated the Parr pair at the end, and she was going well. Indeed, her race was rather an impressive one for a first effort, though Paul Jones had not much difficulty winning, leading all the way. Miss Shackleton tried to keep up with the Parr gelding, but she gave it up a sixteenth from home and finished fourth.

Griffwood, paying $122.10 for $2 in the mutuels, furnished a surprise by taking the measure of the Crown Stable's highly fancied Hello Pardner in the opening dash, while in the following race Natural Bridge, a first-time starter, owned and bred by W. R. Coe, won like a good one.

W. VIAU RETURNING FROM FRANCE.

Wilfrid Viau, whose Omar Khayyam showed a splendid performance at Pimlico on Thursday, is on his way back from France and is due here some day next week. The Viau string has come out of winter quarters this spring in splendid condition, and from present indications the Canadian turfman's colors promise to play a prominent part in the racing on the metropolitan circuit this year. Sandy McNaughton has Omar Khayyam back to the form he displayed when he was hailed as the champion racer of the country two years ago, and on looks the other racers in this stable are likely to give a good account of themselves. This will be Omar Khayyam's last year on the turf. He will be retired to the stud next year.

Papp was kicked while at the post in his race on the opening day, which accounted for his pulling up lame. The injury is more of a muscular soreness than anything else, and the colt should be as well as ever in a couple of days.

W. Shea was a visitor at Pimlico on Thursday. He reports that his racers, Drummond and Yvette, will arrive at Pimlico next week. They are coming with the J. H. Rosseter string, numbering eleven. Jockeys A. Johnson and Hamilton, under contract to the California turfman, accompany the stable. Tea Caddy, the former star of the Shea establishment, which is now located at J. S. Barbee's stud in Kentucky, is in great demand with the breeders in the Blue Grass State. Thirty mares have steadily been booked to Tea Caddy, which is certainly encouraging, considering that it is the horse's first season in the stud.

Capt. P. M. Walker came up from Virginia to participate in the racing at Pimlico. Thirteen of the sixteen mares at Capt. Walker's Page Brook Farm at Boyce, Clark County, Virginia, that have foaled have produced colts, a most remarkable record. These colts are by Bard of Hope, Celt, Dick Finnell and Ultimus. There are in all forty mares at the farm, eighteen of which are the property of Capt. Walker. All are high-bred matrons, and the yearlings at the farm are said to be an exceptionally good looking band.

Jockey Johnny McTaggart, who suffered painful injuries as a result of the fall in the race in which jockey Frank Robinson was killed, was a visitor at Pimlico this afternoon. McTaggart is apparently as well as ever, but he will accept no mounts until the Jamaica meeting.

Dr. F. W. Ashe was an arrival from New York and will remain for the balance of the Pimlico meeting.

On the closing day at Havre de Grace J. W. Bean claimed Brisk, G. W. Forman secured Irene and T. H Wilson claimed Zouave.

Gwyn R. Tompkins has withdrawn his protest against steeplechase jockey C. Smoot. This rider left the employ of Mr. Tompkins without a written discharge. Smoot has been engaged to ride for the J. E. Widener stable.

Terentia and Milkmaid, probably the two best fillies of their age, are among those named to go to the post in the Wimico Purse at Pimlico tomorrow. It will give racegoers a good line on the winner of the Pimlico Oaks, which will be run on the closing day of the meeting.

Howard W. Maxwell, prominent in racing circles, was a visitor at Pimlico this afternoon.

Thomas Clyde has disposed of the three-year-old Reynolds at private sale to G. W. Forman.

KENTUCKY DERBY AND PREAKNESS

Some Interesting Items in Pedigrees of Be Frank, American Ace, Sennings Park and Star Hampton.

The lines of descent up to sixteen quarterings of four young horses, which are eligible to contend for Kentucky Derby or Preakness Stakes honors, are presented here. On the basis of last year's performances Be Frank was the best race horse of the four, but all raced with distinction. Three of the four—Be Frank, Sennings Park and American Ace—are deemed sure starters for the Kentucky Derby, but Star Hampton is only eligible to the Preakness. Be Frank is said to have pleased his trainer greatly in his work this spring, mute evidence of which is found in the fact that he is coming west to start in the big race, with the accomplished rider James Butwell in the saddle. Not far back the Epsom Derby winners Bend Or, Shotover, St. Blaise, Galopin and Voltigeur, and the Kentucky Derby winner Hindoo, figure in his pedigree, so in respect to breeding he presents Derby credentials worth inspection. Something in the same line may be said for American Ace, seeing that he numbers the Epsom Derby winners Hermit, Galopin, Ormonde, Bend Or and Kisber among his close-up ancestors, also the Kentucky Derby winner Ben Brush, so in that respect Be Frank has nothing on him.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The best weight-carrying performance in an Australian Cup, two and a quarter miles, was recorded by Malua, which carried 135 pounds to victory in 1886.

This year's Indian Grand National Steeplechase was won by the English-bred gelding Blackmailer, by Volodyovski—Lady Hawker, which carried top-weight, 175 pounds. The previous two years it was won by the Australian-bred gelding Larrikin.

Signorinetta, the sensational English Derby and Oaks winner of 1908, foaled March 30 a splendid chestnut filly by Major Belmont's St. Leger winner Tracery, whose son, The Panther, many good judges consider the best three-year-old in England. The youngster is a chestnut.

Tom Osborne, the once famous English jockey attached to Robert Peck's Russley Stable, for which he rode Marie Stuart, the winner in the St. Leger of 1873, is now in the Newmarket Infirmary suffering from trouble which is difficult to diagnose. Osborne is sixty-six years of age.

From his first crop of foals the royally bred young sire Theo. Cook has sent to the turf this year Esquimau, winner of five races, and Fanny Cook, winner of three races. He is by Ben Brush, sire of Broomstick and Sweep, and his dam, Climax, was by Domino—Orchis, a sister-in-blood to the unbeaten Ormonde.

April 20, at Newbury, England, Blackwater won the Manton Two-Year-Old Stakes and the Adam Bede—Jovial Jane colt the Two-Year-Old Selling Plate. Both their dams are of American lineage. Waterweed, Blackwater's dam, is by Watercress, and Jovial Jane a Melange mare. Both are therefore great-granddaughters of Glenelg.

Betting in earnest has begun in England over the Epsom Derby, which is to be run June 4. The Panther was favorite April 18 at 3 1-2 to 1. Then follow in order Stefan the Great, 4 1-2 to 1; Manilardo, 8 to 1; Golden Orb, 12 to 1; Paper Money, 17 to 1; McKinley, 17 to 1; Knight of the Air, 20 to 1, and Grand Parade, 25 to 1.

Rubinstein, the property of Lieut-Col. F. Douglas-Pennant, died shortly after being pulled up while competing in the English Grand National. Rubinstein was an American-bred chestnut gelding by Star Ruby (sire of the Grand National winner Rubio) from Numeroet, by Falsetto, and, bred by the late J. B. Haggin, was sold as a yearling for $1,280.

CRACK MACOMBER RACERS IN NEW YORK

Star Hawk and Liberty Loan Reach Belmont Park in Good Condition.

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 2.—Three horses have come from California to A. K. Macomber's stable at Belmont Park. Two of them are Star Hawk and Liberty Loan. The other is said to be War Star. Both Star Hawk and Liberty Loan have seen stud service while on the coast, but have since been trained by Charley Booth. They landed here two days ago in excellent condition and well advanced in preparation for racing. They have only been cantered so far, but will be sent along from now on, though they may not be started before the last days at Belmont. Star Hawk has not raced since 1916 and Liberty Loan's last appearance was in 1917. The latter is a long route horse, Star Hawk also; but Liberty Loan has given indication that he might be trained for Cup races. With these additions to the Macomber stable Mr. Jennings has a fairly strong hand, there being thirty-eight horses in the stable. Happy Buxton will do most of the riding.

William Karrick left Belmont Park last night for Pimlico with his Preakness candidates and some others of less note. Sweep On and Terentia are keyed up to racing, and it might be that both will start in the Preakness. Sweep On ran a good mile yesterday morning in 1:44, anp Terentia was sent three-quarters in 1:15 without much effort. She is a filly that promises great things.

The Welch and Joyner horses are almost ready for some strenuous work and may be called on tomorrow for speed tests.

Omar Khayyam at Pimlico yesterday fulfilled the predictions of those who have watched his exercises this spring, but some of the trainers refrained from wagering on him, owing to the sloppy condition of the track. There is every indication he has returned to his three-year-old form.

With no racing in Canada promised for the early spring the stables on Long Island tracks are likely to be filled to overflowing when the Maryland meetings close. This means fields of twenty and more horses in the cheaper races. All the secretaries hereabouts are being deluged for stable accommodations.

DUSKY EVE'S AUSTRALASIAN MARK

Signor Gelding Wins the Wanganui Cup in Record Time for One and Three-Quarter Miles.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Australia, April 4.—At the Wanganui Cup meeting held at Dunedin, New Zealand, February 18, the main event, the Cup, was won by Dusky Eve, 101 pounds, which went out favorite and beat Depredation, 103 pounds, the Auckland Cup winner of 1917, and Menelaus, 122 pounds, which won the New Zealand Cup of 1917. The unplaced band were Client, Rewi Poto, Bonnie Maid, Henry Clay, Alteration, Form Up and Master Mautou. Dusky Eve won by two lengths in 2:59, an Australasian record for the distance. Dusky Eve is a bay gelding by Signor, the son of Pilgrim's Progress which won the Canterbury Cup and also gained a place in the Champion Stakes and Australian Cup. Swift, the dam of Dusky Eve, also produced Dusky Morn, but is not included in the Stud Book. She is probably identical with a mare of that name, and got by Natator, son of Traducer, from a Gladiator mare. Menelus met Dusky Eve on twelve pounds better terms on the second day in the Wanganui Stakes, and beat him a neck, while Rewi Poto was close-up fourth.

The new record by Dusky Eve displaces Scoutmaster's 3:00, made with 94 pounds up at Randwick, Sydney, October 9, 1915.

Desert Gold was not asked to meet Gloaming in the Jackson Stakes and the champion gelding comfortably annexed the prize money and also that of the Wanganui Guineas, run on the second day. Desert Gold may, however, be saddled up against him at the Wellington and Manawatu autumn meetings.

LATEST TRACK GOSSIP FROM LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Track conditions having changed in the past few days from a lightning fast track to a lane of mud, trainers of the Derby candidates have been forced to shorten the works of their horses. Instead of sending them the full Derby route of a mile and a quarter, they have been content with slow works of three-quarters of a mile. The fast work of Eternal on Wednesday, when he carried around 120 pounds and ran three-quarters in 1:17, is still the chief topic of conversation. Trainer Patterson reports that both of his Derby candidates, Eternal and Sailor, came out of their last works in fine condition, and he is sure they will be "among those present" when the numbers are hung up after the big race of Saturday, May 10.

The stable of W. C. Weant, including Top o' th' Morning, Dick Williams, Ellison, Bars and Stars and others have arrived from Hot Springs and are quartered at Douglas Park. This stable will be ready for the opening day.

Stalls were bedded down this afternoon for H. G. Bedwell's Billy Kelly and Sir Barton, which are on their way here from Havre de Grace. Jimmy Rowe is sending the Whitney horses in the same car. They are expected here at any time.

Col. Matt J. Winn ran over from Latonia and will spend a few days assisting with preparations for the opening day at Churchill Downs.

Edward Jasper, recently appointed by the Kentucky Jockey Club on the board of handicappers, has opened his office at the Downs. At present Mr. Jasper is registering the horses and issuing badges to trainers and owners.

DEAN OF CANADIAN TURF PASSES AWAY

TORONTO, Ont., May 2.—Charles Boyle, Sr., dean of the Canadian turf, died at Woodstock Wednesday at the age of 81 years. His connection with the turf dates back over fifty years. For a long time he was associated with Erastus Burgess and many a good horse they owned. Later Mr. Boyle had a stable of his own and raced at all the big tracks in the United States and Canada. During the latter part of his career he trained for Joseph E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Jockey Club. He saddled Palermo and Roddy Pringle when they won the King's Plate in 1862 and 1883, respectively. Some of the good horses owned by Mr. Boyle were Lord Nelson, Havoc, Springfield and Detective.

MUTUEL MACHINES FOR DERBY DAY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Eugene Elrod has made arrangements for the operation of thirty-seven mutuel machines to take care of the preliminary betting on the Kentucky Derby. There will be a battery of seventy-six mutuel machines in operation when the race is carded for decision. This is expected to be ample to accommodate all who desire to wager on the Derby.

AN OFF DAY AT LEXINGTON

Nearly All the Races Given Over to the Platers.

Expensive Colt Westwood Proves a Failure in His First Attempt — Track Talk.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 2.—Due to the severe track conditions today's racing offering was decidedly featureless and contested in most instances by racers of the cheapest variety. The sport itself presented nothing to enthuse over, and with the exception of the finish in the feature race, which was close, all the others were of the straggling variety, with the winners coming to the finish with a positive advantage.

Some of the results were surprising, and favorites were bowled over repeatedly. The most pronounced disappointment of the afternoon developed with the running of the second race, when Harry Perkins' recently acquired and high priced Nevada wonder, Westwood, failed badly and brought up in third place. In view of the fact that the colt has shown sensationally in trials it was expected that he would run away from the opposition he had, as they consisted of maidens, but he was decisively beaten by St. Germain and Virgo. There was nothing particularly brilliant or impressive about his performance, though he was green at the barrier and during the running. At only one stage of the race did he threaten seriously. That was as the leaders, consisting of Virgo and St. Germain, were rounding into the stretch. Westwood at this point was following them fairly close up and appeared as if he would dispose of them readily in the stretch, but when called on hard he fell back and left St. Germain to dispose of Virgo and win easily.

Probably the worst field that will be mustered in Kentucky this season made the contest in the opening race, and it resulted in a victory for Corydon, slightly favored in the betting, St. Jude landing second place and Ambuscade third. The third race was little better in point of class of the horses than the opener, and enabled Cantilever to win from Gourmand and Handblue, the odds-on favorite, Stevenson, quitting badly after he had threatened a runaway victory.

Fern Handley was probably best in the fourth race, a handicap under claiming conditions at three-quarters, but the diminutive T. Murray was not strong enough to do the filly justice, causing her to be beaten by Port Light, on which Garner rode one of his best races.

Ponderosa, carrying J. Livingston's colors, was backed in confident style in the fith race, but the finish found him far back, War Tax winning, with Parking in second place and Thirteen securing the shorter portion of the purse.

POP EYES BEATS THE FAVORITE.

Another jolt was given the backers when Viola Park and Emma Weller, both winners in their previous starts, were beaten easily by Pop Eyes, which showed a high order of speed from the start and led by a wide margin throughout, Ziziz landing second, with Emma Weller following.

The program book, comprising the first eight days of racing at Churchill Downs, was distributed to owners here and called for the commendatory remarks. The purse offerings for this season exceed the best former offering at this track by over 50 per cent. There will be $27,500 distributed in purses and stakes on Derby day.

Jockey W. Meehan was suspended for four days by the starter in the third race.

James W. McClelland was among today's visitors at the track and expressed confidence that his Eternal would land the Kentucky Derby. He has decided to send Sailor, which he acquired from Robert McKeever at Hot Springs, to the post also in the big event. Schuttinger will have the mount on Eternal, but the owner has not decided on a rider for Sailor. Advices from the east are that responsible New York layers are at present quoting Eternal at 3 to 1, play or pay. This quotation is regarded as somewhat short considering the exacting conditions and the fact that nearly all the cracks to go in the race are practically on the scene and awaiting the bugle call.

Joseph E. Seagram is trying to secure the services of jockey C. Robinson to ride one of his representatives in the King's Plate, to be run at the Woodbine, Toronto, track May 24. It is unlikely that the rider will be secured.

Because of being eneligible to start in the race Lucile P. was ordered withdrawn by the stewards at the last minute from the opening race.

Gallaher Bros. report a new arrival at their farm this morning, a bay filly by Jack Atkin—Royal Captive, and a sister to Sewell Combs.

P. T. Chinn, who races his horses under the nom de course of the Kentucky Stable, was among today's visitors. His horses have been shipped to New York, where they will engage in the racing there. Mr. Chinn will remain in these parts for some time.

BILLY KELLY ARRIVES AT LOUISVILLE

H. P. Whitney's Derby Candidate Vindex in Same Car with the Ross Horses.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Much interest was added to the Kentucky Derby, scheduled to be run one week from tomorrow, upon arrival today at Churchill Downs of Commander J. K. L. Ross' grand little gelding Billy Kelly and Sir Barton, which came on the same train that brought H. P. Whitney's Derby candidate Vindex, in charge of trainer James Rowe, who will saddle the son of St. Victrix—Bellefontaine for the big race. Jockey Bill Knapp, who will ride Vindex, was also an arrival. Billy Kelly and Sir Barton were in charge of C. H. Shilling. All the horses shipped in fine condition.

LANGDON HILLS WINS METROPOLITAN

EPSOM, England, May 2.—The Great Metropolitan Stakes, value $5,000, was run Wednesday over a course of two and a quarter miles on the famous Downs, was won by C. Christenson's Langdon Hills, bay colt, 3, by Troutbeck—Proud Beauty, a maiden, ridden by Robertson, one length ahead of H. Ellis' Furore, with Carslake in the saddle. The favorite, Captain B. Bibby's St. Tudwal, S. Donoghue, was third. Twelve horses started. The betting was Langdon Hills, 20 to 1; Furore, 7 to 2, and St. Tudwal, 100 to 30.

SUNNY SLOPE TO RACE AT PIMLICO

BALTIMORE, Md., May 2.—One of the recent arrivals at Pimlico is Sunny Slope, the property of the Beach Stable and a prospective star of the handicap division. Sunny Slope has not started since last October at Laurel, where a spread foot interrupted his training for the $10,000 Bowie Cup. He has entirely recovered from his injury and appears in grand condition.

The horses that came with Sunny Slope from Laurel Park are all ready for the colors. One of them, Wyndover, is a candidate for the Preakness. He is a good looking son of Free Lance, which was slow in developing last fall, but which showed brilliant form at Bowie in November. Another is Ground-Swell, a daughter of Whisk Broom II. and Rockwater. The Beach Stable has entries in both the Spring Juvenile and the Pimlico Nursery, its best youngsters being Flare Up, a chestnut filly, by Sweeper and Gas Jet; Shillelagh II., a black colt, by Irish Lad—Artless, and Buckhorn II., a bay colt, by Buckhorn—Bertie V.

The fastest work reported at Pimlico recently by a horse of prominence was one by Pride of India, three-quarters in 1:16⅕. Pride of India, a maiden brother of Dominant, is Henry A. Porter's candidate for the Preakness. He has worked brilliantly at short distances at the Benning track, where William P. Burch, trainer of Pride of India and of High Born Lady, wintered. He has not, however, been tried over a long distance of ground.

ENGLISH-AUSTRALIAN-AMERICAN RACES

An Intelligent Criticism by Jockey Carslake of Material and Methods.

"Brownie" Carslake, the Australian jockey, who is now one of the best race riders in England and is under contract to Lord Derby, was a good horseman before he left Australia. Recently there was printed in the London Sportsman his idea of English and Australian racing. The sport in Australia is operated under similar conditions to that in the United States and Canada, and Carslake's estimate of Australian racing applies to that of North America.

Here is Carslake's opinion as he gave it:

"Everything is so different in the two countries that it is impossible to give an opinion as to which is the better. In Australia every race course is run from the spectacular point of view to draw the public like football or athletics or boxing in England. That is the reason why in Australia there are such huge attendances. The longest straight track in the whole of Australia is three-quarters of a mile. That is at Flemington. The whole of the races in Australia are run on circular tracks, so that the public can see the races. The crowd would not stand anything else. Fancy the public in Australia being asked to see the Cesarewitch at Newmarket, two miles and a quarter, and only half a mile of the race to be seen without race glasses! Everything on Australian race courses is studied, not to bring out the best qualities of the horses, but to give the best show to the public. Here Australia beats England all ends up. In England the public do not get anything like it. You could not compare the two countries in this respect.

"As for comparing racing itself in England with racing in Australia, there is no comparison. No jockey who has ever ridden in England would ever want to leave England. Racing in England is on a pinnacle, and after riding in England it would be going downhill for a jockey to leave the country There is no race course in the whole of the world like Newmarket. It is a severe course, from the easiest five-eighths to the severest two miles. There is no horse who does not stay who will win any race there. That is what stamps the mark on any horse that wins at Newmarket. It stands to reason that Newmarket makes a heavy call upon all the art that a jockey possesses—the nursing of a two-year-old, the judgment of pace, the different gradients, the knowledge of the mount under you, whether to take the lead an eighth from home or wait to get your advantage till you are on the post. These points and many others have to be considered. The race tracks in Australia are not to be compared, any one of them, with the courses at Newmarket. From the point of view of bringing out what is best in a horse English racing is out by itself."

$2 mutuels paid, Griffwood, $122.10 straight, $50.60 place, $21.80 show; Hello Pardner, $4.30 place, $3.10 show; Caubeen, $4.40 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Griffwood, 6005 to 100 straight, 2430 to 100 place, 990 to 100 show; Hello Pardner, 115 to 100 place, 55 to 100 show; Caubeen, 120 to 100 show.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—Eloisa (trained by H. Rites; bred by Mr. George J. Long).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. GRIFFWOOD made up ground steadily, wore the leader down in the stretch and won drawing clear. HELLO PARDNER set a good pace to the last eighth and made a game finish. CAUBEEN ran well, but tired and just lasted long enough to save third place. DRUSILLA finished fast and gamely. The others were outpaced.

Scratched—Picker and Stealer, 111.

42204 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. (Oct. 28, 1910—1:39—3—112.) Purse $1,000. 3-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances. Net value to winner $700; second, $200; third, $100.

$2 mutuels paid, Pop Eyes, $12.40 straight, $5.50 place, $3.30 show; Ziziz, $5.80 place, $3.60 show; Emma Weller, $2.90 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Pop Eyes, 520 to 100 straight, 175 to 100 place, 65 to 100 show; Ziziz, 190 to 100 place, 80 to 100 show; Emma Weller, 45 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ivan the Terrible—Sweet Day (trained by O. L. Foster; bred by Mr. Hal Price Headley).

Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. POP EYES, running in quickly improved form, raced into a good lead at once and, increasing her advantage, won in a canter. ZIZIZ, hard ridden, raced forwardly for the entire way and outstayed EMMA WELLER in the last eighth. EMMA WELLER quit in the stretch. RIB had no mishaps. VIOLA PARK was well beaten after going the first quarter.

42216 SEVENTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. (May 10, 1916—1:50⅕—4—114.) Purse $800. 4-year-olds and upward. Claiming. Net value to winner $650; second, $100; third, $50.

Equivalent booking odds—Tito, 455 to 100 straight, 140 to 100 place, 60 to 100 show; Flapper, 85 to 100 place, 35 to 100 show; Bajazet, 80 to 100 show.

Winner—Br. g, by Dr. Leggo—Georgia Girl (trained by G. H. Marlman; bred by Mr. Adolph B. Spreckels).

Went to post at 5:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. TITO followed FLAPPER closely to the last eighth, where he gained steadily and got up to win drawing clear in the last twenty yards. FLAPPER had no mishaps, showed the most speed and tired near the end. BAJAZET ran well and was prominent for the entire way. WATERPROOF was outrun all the way. WOODTHRUSH retired after going a half mile.

Overweights—Butcher Boy, 3 pounds.
